Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced, age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain-treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.

OF INTEREST TO VIRGINIANS. Virginians will be greatly interested in the July number of the National Monthly, the new magazine for men and women, of which Norman E. Mack, chairman of the democratic national committee, is the editor and publisher. In the July number of the National Monthly is contained a very complete article on Governor Swanson, of Vir-ginia, with a review of his administra-

Virginiana will also be interested in s reproduction on the front cover page of this number of James Madison's old home at Montpeller, together with fine pictures of James and Dolly Madison in three colors. In fact Virginia contributed the front cover picture for the May number of the National Monthly, on which Jefferson's old home at Mon ticeilo was reproduced in three colors, together with a fine picture of Jefferson. Likewise the front cover of the August number of Obairman Mack's new monthly magazine will show still an-other historical Virginia home, that of James Monroe, in Loudoun county These colored covers are beautifully printed and all of them are worth framing.

With all this attention paid to Vir ginians and Virgints institutions the National Monthly certainly deserves to have a host of readers in this State.

The subscription price of the msgazine is $1 a year. Subscriptions should be addressed to the National Monthly, Times Bailding, Boffalo, N. Y.

FREDERICKSBURG SUMMER IN-

STITUTE. Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Fredericksburg, July 8. The sixth day of the Fredericksburg ummer Institute shows an enrollment of 40, which is in excesse of the enrollment of the corresponding day of any previous session. A large number of students are expected to take advantage of the last two weeks of the school. Ample prepara-tions have been made for the comfort-able accommodation of all late incomers and the sessions are being held in the commodicus new public school building.
This institute has an especially strong faculty of trained specialists in their several departments, and the school is considered exceptionally good. The personnel of the student-body is very high, and, without exception, they are earnest and diligent in their work.

A special colling of the work.

A special colling of the work. A special cultural entertainment of some sort has been arranged for the students for each Friday evening. It is also likely that an excursion to Washington, at a nominal cost, will be arranged for Saturday, the 17th. Dr. Edward F. Bigelow, nature editor of St. Nicholas magazine, and one of the greatest experts on nature study in America, will deliver a week's lecture on this subject, beginning Monday, the

Those who still intend to come are requested to notify Mr. Granville R. Swift, Fredericksburg, that he may make suitable accommodations for them.
